STUDENT CONDUCT AND WELFARE COMMITTEE
RECOMMENDATION

SR-92-93-(14) 160 (SCW)

That the request for Special Group Registration Privileges for John Marshall Scholars and National Merit Scholars not be approved.

RATIONALE: The guidelines used by the Committee to consider this request were established by SR-90-91-(105)257(SCW) and are as follows:

- A. The group of students (or their representative) must demonstrate that their reasons for requesting this privilege are significantly different from those of large numbers of other students on the campus.
- B. The group of students (or their representative) must demonstrate that the factors they present as constraints on the scheduling of their courses are beyond their control or that of the academic or university unit to which they belong.

Marjorie McInerney, Director of Honors, requested SGR for these students based on the following criteria:

- * SGR is an excellent recruiting tool to encourage these outstanding students to come to Marshall.
- * When Ronald Nurse, Director of Honors at VPI, came to campus several years ago as a consultant for Honors, he indicated strongly that priority registration be granted to these students.
- * SGR requires that each student meet with the Director of the Honors Program to receive a stamp on his or her registration form. This meeting afforded the Honors Director an excellent opportunity to meet with the scholars, check their schedules and advise them about Honors seminars.

Although we agree that these outstanding students should be given every encouragement to enroll at Marshall, the reasons given do not meet the criteria established by the Faculty Senate.
